Woodland Flora, a field guide to the Southern Tablelands (by Sarah Sharp, Rainer Rehwinkel, Dave Mallinson and David Eddy) was published in December 2015 and covers 440 plant species found in woodlands in the Southern Tablelands. Many of these species also occur in other habitats and in other regions and states. Every page has descriptions and one or more photos to help identify each of the species.

The companion book, Grassland Flora, a field guide to the Southern Tablelands (by David Eddy, Dave Mallinson, Rainer Rehwinkel and Sarah Sharp) was originally published in 1997 and was updated in 2020.

Friends of Grasslands also has several books by other authors for sale.
